

Washington Island Students Sweep SeaPerch Competition

By Door County Pulse, Peninsula Pulse – April 5th, 2023

(From left) Team Flounder students are Teagan McGrane, Corbin Kellerman and Allison Bennett. Photo by Miranda Dahlke.

Two teams heading to international competition!

Students from Washington Island placed in the top-three spots April 1 at the Regional Sea Perch competition, where 20 teams of middle school students from across northeastern Wisconsin participated.

(From left) Team Sea Angels students are Jaida Mann, Jaylyn Nickchen and Julia Pratt.

Photo by Miranda Dahlke.

Team Flounder placed first overall, Team Sea Angels second and Team Moby third. The top-two teams will compete in the International SeaPerch competition May 13 at the University of Maryland.

SeaPerch (seaperch.org) is an innovative underwater-robotics program that equips teachers and students with the resources they need to build an underwater remotely operated vehicle in an in-school or out-of-school setting.

(From left) Team Moby students are Xander Weilbaker, Emily Nickchen and Georgy Findlay.

Photo by Miranda Dahlke.